

Week 3 Hand Lettering Guide

Hand lettering is a great, relaxing way to slowly soak in scripture. Once you have a few basics down, you'll be able to take your everyday handwriting up a notch and make beautiful art with ease. I've included some printable worksheet pages in this guide, but your own personal cursive will work just fine too - just follow the steps! If you need some additional help, check out the week 2 Hand Lettering Guide that has some extra practice included! This week, try mixing up cursive with manuscript capitals!

Step 1: Trace.

for by

GRACE

you have been

SAVED

through

FAITH

Step 2: Add fauxligraphy lines on the downstrokes.

for by

GRACE

you have been

SAVED

through

FAITH

Step 3: Trace and add fauxligraphy lines on the downstrokes.

for by

GRACE

you have been

SAVED

through

FAITH

Step 4: Trace with felt tip marker, pressing on the down strokes.

for by

GRACE

you have been

SAVED

through

FAITH

Step 5: Write your own, using fauxligraphy.

Step 6: Write your own, using a felt tip marker.

Ten horizontal grey bars are arranged vertically, spaced evenly down the page. These bars are intended for handwriting practice, specifically for writing cursive letters.

Once you're finished with the worksheets, grab a notebook or a blank piece of paper and try the steps using your own cursive handwriting style!