Donkey Detective

A colt is a young donkey. Why did Jesus ride on one? Long before Jesus was born, God spoke through a prophet named Zechariah, and told about what it would be like when the King was coming. Check out Zechariah 9:9 to see what prophecy was fulfilled on Palm Sunday.

Jesus Loves Kids!

Bible

Write the first letter of each animal in the boxes below!

<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>

Next, write the word above in the two blanks below to complete the verse!

"Then were brought to him that he might lay his hands on them and pray. The disciples rebuked the people, but Jesus said, "Let the little come to me and do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of heaven." And he laid his hands on them and went away." - Matthew 19:13-14

Prayer

Jesus loves kids like YOU! Write the names of kids you know on the next page (or draw them!) - kids in your family, your school, your neighborhood, your church, your teams, your friends! Ask your parents if you can tape this list to your bathroom mirror so you'll remember to pray for all of these awesome friends.

Jesus LOVES Kids!

Jesus, Thank You for loving me and my friends and family.
Thank you for all of the kids on this list and all of the kids in the world that I haven't met yet. Help us to get to know you better, Jesus, and to know how much you love us!

"Holy Thursday"

It can be hard to understand why Jesus died - especially why he needed to die to save us! His friends had a hard time understanding too, so Jesus took some extra time with them to help answer their questions and comfort them and get them ready for the days ahead. The day before Jesus died, he and his friends had a special last dinner together. Let's read about their time together and learn alongside Jesus' friends! Grab a bible and a grown-up and find the answers to some of these questions that Jesus' friends had!

"Jesus, why are you washing my feet?!"
(John 13:12-14)

"Jesus, what are we supposed to do when you are gone?"
(John 13:33-35)

"Jesus, how will we find you when you're gone?"
(John 14:15-6)

"Jesus, who will help us when you are gone?"
(John 14:16)

"Jesus, why are you going to die for me?"
(John 15:13)

"Jesus, what do you mean you're going to see us again soon?"
(John 15:16-20)

What questions do YOU have for Jesus?

"Holy Thursday"

Family

When Jesus has dinner with his friends, he asks them to do two things:

1. Love one another like He loves them.
2. Remember his sacrifice for them whenever they eat together.

We can practice these every day in our normal days, but it can be fun and extra special to eat and spend time together just like Jesus did with his friends. Invite your family to a Holy Thursday family night (sometimes we call this "Maundy" Thursday too!)

Washing Feet

Grab a bucket of soapy water, some washcloths and towels, and offer to wash someone in your family's feet (or everyone's!) You can read John 13 together if you haven't already!

Dirty Jobs

Washing feet can be a dirty job that shows someone you REALLY love them! Are there other ways that you can take over a tough chore or dirty job for someone in your family? Flip to the next page for some coupons you can use to let them know you've got it covered!

A Snack to Remember

Make a simple snack plate to share together. Before eating, say "God, we love you. Thank you for sending Jesus to save us. Help us to understand it more and more every day. Help us to remember how much you love us. Help us to love one another like you love us."

"Good Friday"

Sometimes people call the day we remember Jesus' death "Good Friday." It doesn't feel very GOOD, does it? Depending on how old you are, and how much you've heard about Jesus, you might be starting to understand a little tiny wee little bit about why people would say that it's good. It's okay if you don't understand it all yet. I (Jen) definitely still have a lot of learning to do, and a lot more asking Jesus to do.

Today, read or talk about the story of Jesus' death. Ask a grown-up for a good version to read together, either from a kids' bible, or from a version that you have at home. It might feel sad, or scary, or confusing to read, so it's helpful to read or talk with someone you love next to you!

After you read, it might feel nice to take a walk together in your neighborhood. I don't know about you, but we have been walking a lot a lot a lot in our neighborhood recently, because it's the only place we can go! Here's a fun way to make your neighborhood miles add up!

Geography

Neighborhood Navigation

Print out a walking map of your neighborhood - if your city or county doesn't have one available online, you can pull up your address on google maps and zoom out until it's about 5 miles by 5 miles square. Print it out and use a marker to trace where you've walked - if there are streets or paths you haven't taken yet, take a new adventure and mark it on your map! (Be sure to check in with a grown-up to see what kind of restrictions there are in your town for adventuring around in your neighborhood.)

Grace Mad-Libs

Find someone in your house who can read and write and ask them to fill this out for you. No peeking ahead of time!
When you're done, have them read it to you!

Imagine that there is a rule in your house that in order to _____
FAVORITE FAVORITE FAVORITE THING TO DO you have to eat only _____ all day. If you didn't eat your whole big bowl

GROSSEST FOOD

full of _____, you could NEVER _____
SAME GROSSEST FOOD FROM ABOVE SAME FAVORITE THING TO DO FROM ABOVE

again! You would feel like a _____
ANOTHER WORD FOR SAD ANIMAL

for sure, and not even _____ or _____
CELEBRITY RELATIVE WHO DOESN'T LIVE IN YOUR HOUSE

could make you eat it. Now imagine that _____ offered to eat an extra helping
PERSON IN YOUR HOUSE

of _____ for YOU, just so you could _____
SAME GROSSEST FOOD FROM ABOVE SAME FAVORITE THING TO DO FROM ABOVE

I bet you'd scream "Wow, well I'll be a _____'s _____
ANIMAL NOUN

You sure must love me!"

Memory Verses

What is GRACE? Grace is when we get something that we didn't deserve. If we return a library book late and we aren't charged a fine (even though we should be) that's grace. In your Grace MadLibs above, the person who ate your gross food so you didn't have to but could still do that super fun thing - they offered you GRACE. You got to do the fun thing even though you didn't deserve to. What does GRACE have to do with Jesus? Jesus died in our place so that by GRACE we get what we don't deserve - eternal life with a perfect God even though we are not perfect. We get to be with Jesus forever, even though we didn't earn it ourselves. He saved us and took our punishment. All we have to do is believe that He did that for us! Do you believe it?

For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast.

This is Amazing Grace by Phil Wickham

Who breaks the power of sin and darkness
Whose love is mighty and so much stronger
The King of Glory, the King above all kings
Who shakes the whole earth with holy thunder
And leaves us breathless in awe and wonder
The King of Glory, the King above all kings

Chorus:

This is amazing grace / This is unfailing love
That You would take my place / That You would bear my cross
You lay down Your life / That I would be set free
Oh, Jesus, I sing for / All that You've done for me

Who brings our chaos back into order
Who makes the orphan a son and daughter
The King of Glory, the King of Glory
Who rules the nations with truth and justice
Shines like the sun in all of its brilliance
The King of Glory, the King above all kings

Chorus

Worthy is the Lamb who was slain / Worthy is the King who conquered the grave
Worthy is the Lamb who was slain / Worthy is the King who conquered the grave
Worthy is the Lamb who was slain / Worthy is the King who conquered the grave
Worthy is the Lamb who was slain / Worthy, worthy, worthy

Hosanna by Paul Baloche

Praise is rising, eyes are turning to You, we turn to You
Hope is stirring, hearts are yearning for You, we long for You
'Cause when we see You we find strength to face the day
In Your presence all our fears are washed away, washed away
Hosanna, Hosanna / You are the God who saves us / Worthy of all our praises
Hosanna, Hosanna / Come have Your way among us / We welcome You here, Lord Jesus

Hear the sound of hearts returning to You, we turn to You
In Your Kingdom broken lives are made new, You make us new
'Cause when we see You we find strength to face the day
In Your presence all our fears are washed away, washed away
Hosanna, Hosanna / You are the God who saves us / Worthy of all our praises
Hosanna, Hosanna / Come have Your way among us / We welcome You here, Lord Jesus'

Cause when we see You, we find strength to face the day
In Your Presence all our fears are washed away
'Cause when we see You, we find strength to face the day
In Your Presence all our fears are washed away, washed away

Hosanna, Hosanna You are the God who saves us / Worthy of all our praises
Hosanna, Hosanna / Come have Your way among us / We welcome You here, Lord Jesus

Mark 11:1-11

Now when they drew near to Jerusalem, to Bethphage and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two of his disciples and said to them, "Go into the village in front of you, and immediately as you enter it you will find a colt tied, on which no one has ever sat. Untie it and bring it. If anyone says to you, 'Why are you doing this?' say, 'The Lord has need of it and will send it back here immediately.'" And they went away and found a colt tied at a door outside in the street, and they untied it. And some of those standing there said to them, "What are you doing, untying the colt?" And they told them what Jesus had said, and they let them go. And they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks on it, and he sat on it. And many spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut from the fields. And those who went before and those who followed were shouting, "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David! Hosanna in the highest!" And he entered Jerusalem and went into the temple. And when he had looked around at everything, as it was already late, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.
